within us there is a world in continuous boiling made up of a whole network of circuits connections and structures that give rise to a permanent torrent of thoughts and emotions which gradually circulate through our minds on many occasions without our causing them voluntarily this happens daily throughout all hours of the day it is a passionate space of images that arise in an accelerated way and repeat and fade as time goes by it is like a chaotic disorganized universe on which it is necessary to establish an order a classification of priorities a logic and a new structure it is our inner world it is like another hidden life that we should take out to try to analyze it instead of continuing to remain in the daily film in which we are sometimes immersed and do not recognize ourselves so that we come to feel empty when we verify that on many occasions we are not ourselves using reconstructive ideas available in classical indian original works this book makes a departure in the style of modern writings on indian moral philosophy it presents indian ethics in an objective secular and wherever necessary critical manner as a systematic down to earth philosophical account of moral values virtues rights and obligations it thereby refutes the claim that indian philosophy has no ethics as well as the counter claim that it transcends ethics it demonstrates that moral living proves that the individual his society and the world are really real and not only taken to be real for behavioral purposes as the advaitins hold the self is amoral being a non agent moksa is not a moral value and the karmic theory because of involving belief in rebirth does not fuarantee that the doer of an action is also the experiencer of its results contrary to what is commonly held and indian ethics can sustain itself even if such notions are dropped rajendra prasad calls indian ethics organismic because along with ethical concerns it also covers issues related to professions politics administration sex environment etc therefore in one format it is theoretical and applied normative and metaethical humanistic and non humanistic etc of course within the limits of the then cognitive enquiry
